

CINNAMON BUNS SPIT
NATIONAL SERVICE CAMP

Classes Eat Light Midday Meal in Anticipation of Hot
"Goodies."

When word went through the national service camp today that cinnamon buns were being baked and would be served hot about 2 o'clock it nearly disrupted the classes, and there were many light eaters in the mess hall for the midday meal. The fair campers lingered long about the big field oven which was set up on the parade ground early today to demonstrate to the campers how Uncle Sam cooks bread for his soldiers in the field.

The detachment in command of Capt. Will H. Point, quartermaster at Washington barracks, came into camp early and began making the dough. By 11 o'clock the bread was going into the ovens. This, of course, will not be served until tomorrow, and this saddened the hearts of the students for awhile, for they thought they were going to get hot bread just like they get at home.

Examinations in Signaling.
Examinations in wigwag and semaphore signaling are being given today by Chief Quartermasters Fanger and Shipp of the U. S. Navy. Wireless examinations will be given Saturday by Radio Electrician Pitts of the navy.

John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American Union, and Maj. Gen. William H. Carter, U. S. A., are on the program to deliver lectures this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the big lecture tent.

There will be post services Sunday afternoon. Rev. C. Austin of All Saints' Church, Chevy Chase, will deliver the sermon. Miss Elizabeth Fox, superintendent of the Instructing Visiting Nurses' Society, told of the great work which could be done by the young women when they returned to their homes in looking to the social betterment of their cities. She pointed out many opportunities for social service work, in which trained women, such as those attending the camp, could be of material assistance.

CAMP NOTES.

Mrs. Charles Benlap, captain of Company C, was officer of the day yesterday. As her color guard, she had Misses Lucy Dawson, J. Lloyd, L. Amory and C. Bailey.

Mrs. W. L. Richter of Plainfield, N. J., has left the camp, owing to the sudden illness of her husband, who was in the militia camp at Radio, Va. Both have gone home.

Mrs. Webb Peoples of Baltimore was called home on account of the illness of her mother.

Owing to the danger to the young campers who cross the road to go to the canteen, Deputy Sheriff Peake forced a number of automobiles to cut down their speed in passing the camp.

Practically all of the campers will go to Mount Vernon tomorrow to place a wreath on the tomb of George Washington. Mrs. George Dewey, wife of the admiral, will be in charge.

Joseph Pokorney, the camp cook, is preparing meals to order now.

Miss Beatrice Clover, daughter of Admiral Clover, is one of the happiest girls in camp, having passed her examination in telegraphy, sewing and receiving a fifteen-word sentence without a break.

Company C gave a minstrel show in the big tent last night. Those who assisted in the funmaking were: Serat, Josephine Foster, Miss Suzanne Levick, Miss Emile Huff, Miss Betty Dercum, Miss Katherine Field, Miss Caroline English and Miss Josephine Hayden.

WILL TAKE UP MONDAY
QUESTIONS OF REVENUE

Democratic Members of Ways and Means Committee to Frame Measure.

The whole revenue question will be taken up Monday by democratic members of the House ways and means committee, under a call issued today. They have already informally discussed the prospects and drawn up a tentative bill which will be reviewed next week. When the bill is perfected it will be laid before the republican members and then reported to the House.

The bulk of the revenue to be raised under the general bill, which will include provision for a non-partisan tariff commission, will be sought through the income tax, an inheritance tax, and a tax on war munitions manufacture. There is no disposition to lower the exemptions under the income tax, but the surtax probably will be increased all along the line.
